FLOOR DEBATE

April 17, 2002 LB 1303

have been made aware that he or she has let the registration expire. I will turn on my light again, then I can complete my thought.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator, you may continue, and this will be your third time, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President. The person will have been notified, and if he or she does not want to go to this class, then just pay whatever the fine is for having let your registration expire. But if the person wants to go to the class then it seems to me they should be able to. One of the other things that a person can be stopped for is not having the driver's license in his or her possession. It's not expired, it's not suspended, but the physical license is not in his or her possession. That would be considered a minor traffic violation because it is not excluded. Overweight...driving an overweight vehicle apparently would be a minor traffic violation too, wouldn't it,...

SENATOR BROMM: I think so...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...since it's not excluded?

SENATOR BROMM: ...I think so, um-hum.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Having too many people in the vehicle,...

SENATOR BROMM: Um-hum.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...if you have 30 people in the vehicle,...

SENATOR BROMM: Yeah.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...that would be minor. And I'm not trying to be ridiculous, but trying to show that this particular item seems out of step with what the purpose of the bill is. Would you be opposed to striking that language?

SENATOR BROMM: Could I...could I ask a question?
